A. Project Group

Students Helping Students – As the leader and creator of this project group, I have established the Backpack Program in my county. In under a year, I raised over $6000 for funding, increased the number of Participating students from 15 to over 350, and help to establish this program in every school in Fentress County. This year I've already started fundraising for the Backpack Program. I've lead my county's 4-H Honor Club in sessions where we pack bags for the Backpack Program, and we discuss how this program will benefit the Students who receive them. This year I've went to speak at churches to help raise awareness, support, and funding For this program. I will continue to lead my project group in fundraising, packing bags, and raising awareness for this Program.

4-H Seasons of Service Garden – As a teen leader for the garden project, I've started preparing for this Year's garden. I've lead a group of Jr. High 4-H'ers in planning the layout of the garden that will focus on promoting Floral exhibits in the Fentress County Fair. I've also started preparing the garden to be planted. I've Helped lead two other Jr. High 4-H'ers in weeding, cultivating, and starting to plant this year's garden.
